

Indulge in Cold Weather Adventures

With fall and winter just around the corner, it's time to plan ahead for all of the guests that cold weather adventures bring.

Lodges, hotels, resorts and indoor amusement parks are primed to get a business boom in 2022/2023. "Domestic leisure travel spending has already surpassed pre-pandemic levels, even when adjusted for inflation." Along with a more immersive guest experience comes upgrades to the food experience.

Great Breakfast Leads to Great Reviews

Breakfast is a daypart to win the hearts of your hotel guests. A recent Google survey found that 42.4% of guests picked breakfast as the hotel feature they most looked forward to. Before the family hits the slopes, make sure to provide an excellent experience with wholesome, luscious options.

A mainstay of breakfast, brunch and break indulgence is our Pullman Loaves.

- Purposeful, better-for-you ingredients
- Thaw and serve, ready to indulge
- Comforting flavors and format
- Versatile, breakfast, grab-and-go, plated, parfait, grilled, catering, etc.

Pullman Variety #9 is available in national distribution and contains mouthwatering flavors: Orange Poppy, Lemon Glazed, Marble Chocolate Chip and Cinnamon Streusel. Pre-sliced for operation ease, this variety case offers fresh flavor options for guests while providing chefs with a canvas fit for creativity. Cross-utilization of sku's remains key in the ever changing foodservice landscape. Whether a grab-and-go option or transformed into french toast worthy of their cravings, guests will keep coming back for more Pullmans.

Satisfy Seasonal Cravings

As guests coming off the ski lift are looking for a break and indulgent Après snack, satisfy them with a warm Sandy's Amazing Chocolate Chip Cookie or a local hot drink favorite paired with an aromatic Cinnamon Streusel Pullman. What's better after a long-day of indoor amusement park fun, than capping the night with lasting fireside memories in the lodge? Feed their nostalgia with a hot chocolate bar featuring Chewy Marshmallow Bars with a chocolate fountain for a new take on s'mores perfection.
